erally; to begin surveys for the new road within ninety days, and actual construction in nine months; to prosecute construction at all times to the satisfaction of the City Engineer; to guarantee to build across the Pamunkey River within two years, and to Urbanna, on the Rappahannock River, within five years, under bond with a reliable surety company in the sum of $50,000.

Loss Their Transfers.
 Citizens living along the route of the present Seven Pines line lose their rights of transfer to and from the street car lines of the Virginia Railway and Power Company, but in all other respects have the same rights and privileges as to transportation which they now enjoy.

In order to effect the change, it is necessary to amend the franchise granted by the city on December 23, 1899, to the old Richmond Passenger and Power Company, for a system of streets railways, of which the Seven Pines line has been a branch.

The only opposition in the Board came from Alderman Nelson, who offered a substitute for section II of the proposed new franchise, providing that the company shall charge a straight 5-cent fare, with no tickets of any kind, and shall give one transfer, good to all parts of the city.

On the roll call this was rejected—13 to 1—as was a further amendment offered by Mr. Nelson, providing that the new schedule of fares and the abolition of transfer privileges should take effect when the new company has completed its line across the Pamunkey River. The ordinance was then adopted on a vote of 13 to 1.

Public Library.
 The Board of Aldermen concurred in the action taken by the Common Council in authorizing the appointment of two Aldermen and three Councilmen, to which is to be referred the offer of Thomas J. Todd to donate $15,000 to the city toward the purchase of a site for a free public circulating library, if the city will erect a suitable building thereon, and agree to maintain such a library.

The Board also concurred in the joint resolution inviting Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, to address the City Council and citizens of Richmond in the City Auditorium on some topic of public interest on the earliest date which the distinguished candidate for the presidency may select.

Some Papers Concurred In.
 The Board concurred in the following ordinances and resolutions adopted by the Common Council, which now go to the Mayor for his signature: Increasing the pay of watchmen employed on the Free Bridge to $2 per day each.

Ordering payment of damages for grading a number of streets.
 Directing the Assessor of Damages.
